

The system allows users to manage information related to books, authors, and publishers. Each book can be associated with one or more authors and published by a publisher. The system facilitates the registration, updating, and consultation of data, as well as linking authors with their publications and books with their respective publishers.